The Wonder of Number: Maths in the lower primary classes
Elaine Thompson
The crucial experience of number, as well as basic mathematical concepts, rests on an inner certainty of our senses of movement and balance. The true foundation of number concept is an inner experience of movement: Enst Schubert “Teaching Mathematics for First and Second Grade in Waldorf Schools.

Illumination - the birth of scientific thinking in the upper primary grades
Damien Gilroy
Steiner Education’s approach to teaching Science leads students into a deeper and living connection with phenomena and the emergence of true scientific thinking.

Thursday 11 September
Loving Learning with Language
Fran Meyer
Literacy is the ability to read, view, write, design, speak and listen in a way that allows us to communicate effectively to make sense of the world. Come along to hear how we do this in Steiner Education, join in discussion and share your thoughts and insights. You might even get to hear a story!

Tuesday 28 October
Pathways to High School
Catherine Banner
After the Steiner Stream, what next? Catherine will chair a panel of speakers including Leaders from High Schools and ex-students to explore the experience of graduates of Trinity Gardens School as they make the transition to High School and beyond.

“To truly know the world, look deeply within your own being; to truly know yourself, take real interest in the world.”
Rudolf Steiner

Tuesday 18 November
The Healthy, Happy Child
Marianne Nicholas and Kirsten Andersson
Learning difficulties are often due to disruptions in the developmental stages of the first seven years of life. This can result in poor spatial orientation and body awareness, sensory processing challenges, retained early movement patterns or reflexes and co-ordination difficulties. Simple exercises and adjustments to daily routines can make a real difference to children’s health and soul life.
Marianne and Kirsten are Extra Lesson teachers at TGS, Willunga Waldorf School and Mt Barker Waldorf School.

All talks are in the Resource Centre at 7pm
There will be a short supper break at 7.45pm and the evening will conclude at 8.45pm.
A gold coin donation is appreciated.
All welcome!
